During the weekend, you will also learn to understand how continuing with Crystal's online course can fully integrate and implement all of what you have learned to better your future.

Some of what this weekend may offer for you:

- How would you like to hack the codes that block your mind, body and spirit and reprogram your whole being with simple and easy tools?
- How would you like to learn how to ask simple questions which may guide you to surrounding yourself with likeminded, positive, supportive people and let your talents unfold?
- You will be inspired in order to dream and live big!
- You will hear stories on how to make the impossible, possible.
- You will develop ideas on what to do when your life seems hopeless and you cannot see light in the end of the tunnel.
- Crystal will introduce to you her Wheel of Abundance system. Learn from your relationship with yourself and the relationship you have with others. This will cover your health, sexuality, helping you to find your talents and your mission in life. You will find shortcuts to your abundance and your prosperity treasures.
- You will learn how to raise your frequency and how to do it with the 4 elements system
- You will learn how to use the 4 elements in your manifestation process
- You will love learning how to see the elements in others, how that will have an effect on your life and make your life that much easier
- You will learn how to use the 4 elements to balance yourself (with fire, a walk on the beach, conscious breathing, water therapy, connecting with the earth and our bodies. We will learn to trust ourselves and others)
- You will get practical tools that will help build structure and systems in your life. These will help with difficult times and guide you from potential paths that lead to trouble in your future

What characterizes Crystal's retreats?

There is a lot of unexpected unknown in it. As she follows the energies and what the spirit is dictating, then the program weaves itself together accordingly. She has got all the best tools now also how to deal with the shadows in a group or individuals and her 4 V system is a good example how to put it into practice.

All the people who have participated in her retreats, whether in Tallinn, Saaremaa, Hawaii, Mexico, or Norway, they have all experienced huge consciousness expansion, the beginning of the new life, new choices and moving forward the way which was not possible before. This has happened because Crystal created an environment, where everyone felt inspiration to change and made also steps to create that.

Some examples of the results after the retreats – who gets a new partner, who gets a new job, who leaves the old life, who registers the new company, who creates more opportunities to receive more abundance, who lets go of the fear to swim and turns into a mermaid and so much more.

Join the retreat to create your own success story for your future!
