Today's tasks about Secret Relationships are following;

- Do you know who is your 100% Authentic you?
- Do you have the courage to love openly and honestly and share it with the world?
- How does your perfect relationship with yourself look like?
- What would you like from your life and what part do relationships play in it?
- What kind of relation would be a relation on your terms?
- Have you written down your self declaration? If not what is it like?
- Work through the list of "women who pick secret relationships" which I shared in my video today. Which one of these mentioned characteristics do you still have? Pick those out and become the exact opposite!
- What is your definition of free love?
- What is a mature and conscious relationship like for you?
- What is your dream relationship on your terms like?

Thank you for answering these questions and stepping several more steps closer to you!
